Corner Punch Out

This clear folding box has a Corner Punch Out. When pushed in it creates a filler space holding product in place or creating a platform on which to position product. The punch out is created by two parallel cuts that cross the corner crease of a box.